Workcamp 2018 Participant Covenant

Workcamp can be an extraordinary life-changing experience. Workcamp is an excellent opportunity for high school age youth, young adults (18-20), and adult leaders (21+) to grow in faith, make a difference in the world through Christian service, and build a stronger relationship with the St. Mary's parish community. As evidenced by the large number of participants, Workcampers find this mission experience very meaningful. St. Mary's has never limited the number of participants and it is our goal to continue providing this opportunity for all who desire to participate. In order to achieve this goal, parish staff, participants and parents must all work together and be committed to one another.

This covenant is designed to:

- Help you get the most out of your Workcamp experience.
- Clarify your accountability to parish staff members and all Workcampers.
- Make clear the commitment that is required of all Workcampers.
- Hold you accountable for all communications you receive.

Communication

1. The primary sources of communication to Workcampers will be through the mail. Workcampers will be held responsible for any information that is communicated through the mail. Workcampers will also be held accountable for responding to these communications within the designated time frame.
2. Personal communications may come to you through a variety of people. You may or may not be familiar with the person who calls you or leaves a message at your home. If you have further questions after you receive the call or message, contact Justin or Margie. If you are asked to respond with a phone call or e-mail, be sure to respond as soon as possible.
3. Do use these communication vehicles:
Justin's office/voice mail: 651-429-8001 x 223
Justin's e-mail: jkelly@stmarys-wbl.org
Justin's cell phone: 651-492-8252 (texting is OK)
Erin's cell phone: 651-253-7770 (texting is OK)
Erin's e-mail: eboco09@gmail.com
Loree Weber's office or voice mail: 651-429-8001 x228
Loree Weber's e-mail: lweber@stmarys-wbl.org
4. When leaving voice mails and e-mails, be sure to include both your first and last name.

PLEASE KEEP THIS PAGE!

Attendance

1. Attendance at monthly Workcamp gatherings is required.
2. On the weekends that our calendar reads “All Masses,” Workcampers are required to attend one Mass and help before and after that Mass. Since 11 AM is the most popular Mass among this group, Workcampers will need to take turns attending the other Masses.
3. Participation in youth group activities is strongly encouraged.

Leadership

1. Workcampers will choose at least one event for which they will provide leadership. Previous experience with a particular event is not necessary for leadership.
2. Leadership job descriptions for each event will be available at the September 26 Workcamp gathering.

Parent Involvement

1. As Workcamp participation has grown, so has the need for more adult involvement. Parent involvement is essential to both the short term and long term future of Workcamp.
2. Workcampers will share information with parents and encourage their parents to get involved. Workcampers may not discourage parent involvement!
3. No Workcamper is ever penalized for a parent’s inability to be involved.

Fundraising

1. Many fundraising events can only accommodate a limited number of people. Therefore, as fundraising opportunities arise, they are offered on a first-come basis.
2. If you have reserved a space at a fundraising event and are suddenly unable to attend, you must find a replacement for yourself.
3. A positive attitude and superior work ethic are required of all fundraising event participants.

PLEASE KEEP THIS PAGE!

Probation

1. If a Workcamper does not follow this covenant, the Workcamper will be placed on probation.
2. A Workcamper on probation will meet with Justin and communicate with him regularly until the Workcamper is removed from probation. Communication includes, but is not limited to, e-mail, phone, text messages and personal meetings. Justin has the right to request personal meetings with Workcampers who are on probation.
3. Workcampers who continue to break the covenant will not be allowed to participate in Workcamp this year.

If You Live Far Away

Many of you live out of town. Obviously, your attendance at all Workcamp events is not possible. However, you will be required to keep yourself informed and communicate with the rest of us.

1. Be sure that Justin has your correct temporary address and e-mail address.
2. Respond to any communications you receive about Workcamp within the designated time frame.
3. Try to have a trip home coincide with a Workcamp event.
4. Sign-up for a leadership opportunity that takes place during school breaks or after you return home for the summer, such as the Poinsettia Sale, Easter Lily Sale, and more!
5. Let Justin know whenever you will be in town.
