INFORMATION FROM FAMILY ABOUT THE PERSON WHO HAS DIED

This information will be helpful to the pastor to know about the deceased as he prepares for the Mass of Resurrection.

Family Information: (spouse, living or deceased; children, living and deceased, siblings or other significant family or friend)

Person's Occupation, Hobbies, Interests:

Significant Qualities, Values, Virtues:

Faith Life:

Circumstances Around the Death:

Other:

Words of Remembrance on Day of Funeral

(Phrase used instead of eulogy)

Guidelines:

- Delivered after Father has said the Prayer after Communion and before the ritual of incensing.
- Limited to a maximum of 5 minutes
- One person designated to deliver the remembrance.
- Prepared ahead—written out so as to prevent rambling; fits on one piece of paper.

Tips:

- 1) Gather Information
Reminisce about what set this person apart. How did this person touch your life and the lives of others? How did this person make a difference?
- 2) Be Specific.
Tell a story that illustrates the person's virtues or qualities. Tasteful humor is good; laughter is healing.
- 3) Avoid trying to say everything—it just is not possible.
It is not a time to “say all the things that I should have said when the person was living.”
It is not a time to recall all the details and events of the person's life.
- 4) Set boundaries.
It is not a time for off-color anecdotes that are better suited for a roast or toast.
No need to mention the person's vices. Those who don't know them, don't need to hear them now.
- 5) Practice delivering the reflection so you are sure it sounds right and is what you want to say.
- 6) Relax. Breathe normally and do not rush. Speak clearly and distinctly into the microphone.
